Call for Applications for Network Coordination

Description Recruitment of a consultant for the coordination of a network for the promotion of women's rights in West Africa.

1. Notice of call for applications :The Rosa Luxemburg Foundation, a German non-profit political foundation that works for the respect of human rights and social justice, invites any competent person (researchers/activists; development Promoter) to submit her candidacy to coordinate the activities of the newly created network for the promotion of women's rights in West Africa, following a series of conferences organized with more than 120 participants since 2020.
2. The opinion concerns persons already involved in women's associations and who works for the protection and promotion of women's rights as a whole;
3. The Foundation is not obliged to choose the cheapest proposal. It reserves the right to choose the respondent who best meets its expectations ;
4. The Foundation does not assume any liability for any costs incurred in the submission process;
5. The tenderer is obliged to use the Foundation's contracts model;
6. Payments arising from the activities of the network will be made directly by the Foundation;
7. The Foundation, if necessary, may request a videoconference or an exchange session from a bidder to better understand her proposal without this being taken as a promise of selection;
8. Only applications received by email will be accepted ;
9. Proposals received after the submission date will not be considered;
10. The tenderer is required to attach her CV to her proposal;
11. The bidder must have knowledge of the social sciences;
12. Have the ability to coordinate an activity under pressure;
13. Writing a report to be published after each activity;
14. Writing of a global rapport at the end of the year
